... SNOOPERS PARADISE, BRIGHTON

Rebecca Tucker, co-founder and co-director at interior design consultancy Suna Interior Design, loves browsing through Brighton's bustling Lanes...

I love the Lanes and the North Lanes in Brighton. We start at the sea front and work our way north, from gorgeous vintage jewellery shops and furniture stores to art galleries, cafes and restaurants, a whole day can be spent browsing, relaxing and generally watching the world go by. A favourite for me is Snoopers, an antique/retro/second hand emporium of amazing finds and nick nacks, though it is sometimes impossible to drag my husband out of there! We have bought, among other things, a tan leather retro armchair and a marble Saarinen dining table from Snoopers. And a must see, is the small-but-perfectly-formed Choccywoccydoodah, worth a visit just to see the ever-changing shop window!
