

News / 9
www.sbid.org

News

CGI FROM SUNA INTERIOR DESIGN

Property developers can give potential clients a more realistic vision of their product offering thanks to Suna Interior Design's new Design for CGI service. The interior design consultancy has launched the service to provide developers with realistic visuals of interior and exterior design. Developing the service was "the next logical step," according to Suna Interior Design's Head of CGI, Sharon Maskell. "We very much look forward to growing this side of the business further," she said.

www.sunainteriordesign.com

The living room at Great Minster House Apartment for Barratt London. Interior Design by Suna Interior Design, CGI by Pelican.

CUT YOUR PHOTOGRAPHY COSTS

A new hassle-free, cost-share service from architecture and interiors photographer Adam Chandler makes it possible for several parties – from you to the client and other suppliers – to share the commissioning costs of photography on a project. Furthermore, all arrangements are made by the photographer once you supply details of the other parties sharing the costs and user license.

www.adamchandlerltd.com

ART 15 SUCCESS

Around 150 exhibitors from over 40 countries showcased work at Art 15, the global art fair for leading artists, galleries and collectors. The third edition of the London event took place from 21-23 May and drew over 23,000 visitors. Among the attendees were fashion designers Matthew Williamson and Mary Katrantzou and a host of high-profile international art collectors.

www.artfairslondon.com

